

February 4, 2013

To whom this may concern,

As the Coordinator for the Disaster Management Program for the Canadian Red Cross in Edmonton and Area I would like to strongly recommend Randy King for his teaching skills. On January 17th, 2013 Randy presented to the Edmonton team of volunteers a seminar on practical self defense skills. He was a fantastic presenter. The team was engaged and eagerly participated in the seminar. I have received a lot of great reviews from everyone attended. It is evident that Randy is an expert and is someone who can effectively present to a wide variety of people.

The demographic of the Edmonton team is varied and ranges from University Students to Retirees; Randy was able to appeal and connect with everyone. The team of volunteers provides the basic necessities for people affected by disasters anywhere in Central and Northern Alberta. For this reason, they can sometimes be in vulnerable positions. Thanks to Randy's presentation, the team of volunteers in the field will be able to have the proper skills and knowledge to get themselves out of any potentially risky situations.

I would, without a moment's hesitation, recommend Randy King and KPC to any group of people to do presentations, workshops, or classes. Randy is an expert in his field and is able to communicate and connect effectively to anyone. If you have any questions about anything in this letter, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Ana Gonzalez

Edmonton and Area Response Coordinator

Disaster Management

(780)702-4155

Ana.Gonzalez@RedCross.ca